DIVISION THREE

B150186 People v. Henry Loyce Thomas (Not for Publication)
B154093 In re Henry Loyce Thomas on Habeas Corpus

The superior court's order denying Thomas's petition for writ of error coram nobis is reversed. The matter is remanded for proceedings consistent with this opinion. In regard to Thomas's petition for writ of habeas corpus, we issue an Order to Show Cause returnable in the superior court, and the superior court is directed to hold an evidentiary hearing to determine whether Thomas was prejudiced by attorney Sherman's deficient representation. We confer jurisdiction upon the superior court to grant or deny relief based upon the law and the facts so determined.

DIVISION THREE (Continued)

B151131 Edward D. Basura, Jr. et al. (Certified for Publication)
 v.
 U.S. Home Corporation

The order denying the petition to compel arbitration is reversed with the following directions: With respect to the 20 Group One plaintiffs, the reversal is with direction to grant Home's petition to compel arbitration. As for the 28 Group Two plaintiffs, the trial court is directed to conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine whether Home intended to enter into arbitration agreements with said plaintiffs. If the trial court finds Home did intend to enter into arbitration agreements with said plaintiffs, it shall grant Home's petition to compel arbitration. Conversely, if the trial court finds Home did not so intend, it shall deny the petition. The parties shall bear their respective costs on appeal.
